

The University of Chicago Human Rights Program presents the Robert H. Kirschner Memorial Human Rights Lecture

“truth, lies, and duct tape”

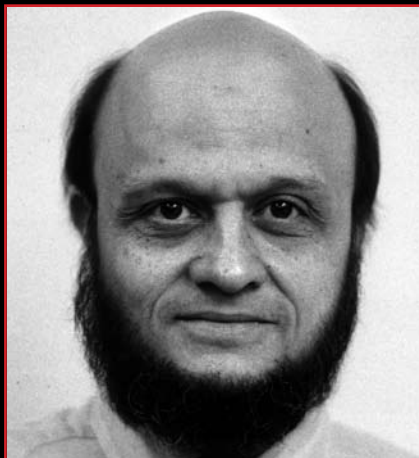

a lecture by Sara Paretsky

Thursday, April 12 at 7pm

Social Sciences Research Building Rm. 122

University of Chicago, 1126 E. 59th Street

Sara Paretsky is the author of the bestselling V. I. Warshawski novels, including, most recently, Fire Sale and Blacklist. She is the winner of many awards, including the Cartier Diamond Dagger award for lifetime achievement from the British Crime Writers' Association.

The lecture series honors the life and work of Dr. Robert Kirschner, noted forensic pathologist and international human rights activist, who was a founder of the University of Chicago Human Rights Program.

Paretsky's lecture kicks off the tenth anniversary year of the Human Rights Program. A reception will follow the lecture. This event is free and open to the public.

People with disabilities who may require additional assistance should contact Maureen Loughnane-Colligan at 773-834-0957 in advance.
