

Seeing Human Rights Photo and Short Film Contest

Deadline: Monday, October 24 by 5 pm

Photo by David Klein (AB 2010), 2009 Human Rights Intern

Hard copies/DVDs should be submitted to Sarah Patton Moberg at 5720 S. Woodlawn Ave, Room 212 by 5 pm on Monday, October 24, 2011.

Winners of the photo and film categories will receive a $100 cash prize. An exhibit of selected works will be on display during Winter Quarter 2011.

GUIDELINES:

The Human Rights Program invites students to submit work that depicts an aspect of human rights, as well as a short written explanation (100 words or less) of how the photo/film portrays a particular article of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Students can submit one photograph, a set of photographs, or a film or video under 10 minutes in length.

SEEING HUMAN RIGHTS:

This contest is part of the Human Rights Program's ongoing series Seeing Human Rights. Seeing Human Rights is designed to help U of C students integrate the visual arts with their study of human rights. We encourage critical consideration of contemporary human rights issues such as representation, voice, marginality, and empowerment.

The series is supported by the University of Chicago Human Rights Program, the Arts Council, and the Franke Institute for the Humanities.

QUESTIONS?

For more information, please contact Sarah Patton Moberg at spmoberg@uchicago.edu or 773-834-0957.

HR

Human Rights Program
5720 S. Woodlawn Ave
773-834-0957
humanrights.uchicago.edu